The Domino Theory

President Eisenhower developed the "Domino Theory" – if Vietnam fell to Communism, the U.S. believed all of Southeast Asia would fall like dominoes (China and North Korea already did)

Communists within South Vietnam (Vietcong) tried to take over the country with help from the North Vietnamese

North and South Vietnam divided by ideologies

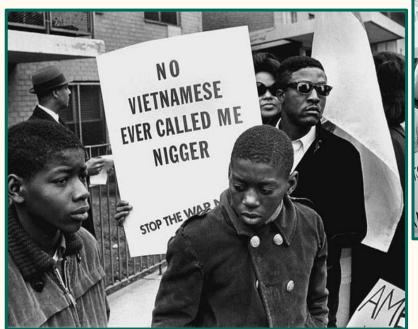

South Vietnam was a
Democracy led by Ngo Dinh
Diem, who ended up being killed.

- U.S. had been sending supplies to South Vietnamese
- August 2, 1964 U.S. destroyer attacked in Gulf of Tonkin (off Vietnamese coast)
- August 7, 1964 U.S. government passed Tonkin Gulf Resolution, Pres. Johnson given power to act
- March 1965 1st U.S. combat troops arrived in South Vietnam (Operation Rolling Thunder series of air attacks meant to destroy war industries in North Vietnam it didn't work)

Americans were divided over whether the U.S.

should be involved militarily in Vietnam.

1973 – the U.S. pulled out of Vietnam

➤ Vietnamization — U.S. trained South Vietnamese to carry on fight without them

1975 – City of Saigon fell to North Vietnam & Vietnam became a unified COMMUNIST COUNTRY

The conflict ended in a ceasefire agreement...
